

A black and white line drawing of a baby Pikachu, designed as a coloring page. The character is depicted from the chest up, wearing a baseball cap with a small rectangular patch on the front. It has large, expressive eyes, a small smile, and prominent circular cheeks. Its ears are large and pointed, with one ear partially obscured by the cap. The drawing uses clean, bold outlines and some internal hatching for shading, particularly on the cheeks and body. The overall style is cute and friendly, suitable for children's coloring.
