

A black and white line drawing of a smiling Earth with a face, surrounded by various elements including rabbits, trees, flowers, a sun, and a recycling bin labeled 'CAIURCH'. The Earth is the central figure, with a large, friendly face featuring a wide smile and large eyes. It is surrounded by a variety of nature elements: a sun with a face in the top right, clouds, a rabbit in the top left, and several trees and flowers. In the foreground, there are two recycling bins; the one on the left is labeled 'CAIURCH' and has a rabbit standing next to it. The entire scene is framed by a simple border, and the overall style is whimsical and cartoonish.
