

• Before the release of the movie, Superman was a very popular character.

One of the main reasons for this was his ability to fly and his strength. He was also a very handsome man, which made him a very popular character among young people.

Superman was also a very popular character because he was a very powerful man. He was able to do things that no other man could do, and he was always there to help people in need. This made him a very popular character among people of all ages.
