

Competition, Racers usually, have cars equipped with many hood scoops and air filters. They breathe air from the ground to a carburetor and drive it through a fuel filter and a fuel pump. These components are mounted on the back of the car, and the air filter is located at the rear of the car. The fuel pump is located at the rear of the car, and the fuel filter is located at the rear of the car. The fuel pump is located at the rear of the car, and the fuel filter is located at the rear of the car.

Ford's racing car was built by Ford. It was built by Ford.