

JUNGLE DELLI TIGRI

"Once upon a time, there was a tiger who lived in a jungle. He was very brave and strong, but he also had a kind heart. He would often help the other animals in the jungle, and they all loved him. One day, a small tiger cub was born in the jungle. The cub was very curious and playful, but he was also very small and weak. He looked up to his father, the big tiger, and wanted to be just like him. The big tiger taught his cub many things, such as how to hunt and how to survive in the jungle. But the cub also learned that it's important to be kind and gentle, even when you're strong. As the cub grew bigger, he became more and more confident, and he eventually became a great tiger himself. He always remembered his father's words and tried to be a good tiger, just like his dad." (This is a short story for children about a tiger cub growing up in the jungle.)
